Employment trends

A recent Labour market study performed indicates, high employment rate and strong job growth. But age challenge is particularly strong in Germany, with over one third of working age population being 50 or older. The employment is expected to increase slightly in the future and majority of jobs demand will consist of replacements of retiring workers. Over the period to 2030, most employment growth is expected in Information technology, accommodation & food, energy supply services and transport & storage. Most demanded jobs will require medium-level qualifications.

Summary –the other side of the coin

- Cross-border job search has picked up after falling during the pandemic and international work-related migration is on the rise. Employers are getting ready for the inflow of foreign candidates. To plan hiring strategies for 2022 and beyond, employers are now learning where foreign candidates are from and what jobs they're interested in?
- Remote, high-paying and hard-to-fill jobs tend to receive high shares of clicks from overseas. Employers are bound to think about ways to attract foreign workers as a strategy to address Labour shortages
- A tight labor market, many businesses are already taking steps to hire foreign workers, such as posting jobs abroad, hiring recruiters with foreign language skills, taking advantage of government schemes or writing job descriptions in multiple languages.
- Employers are now open to candidates with wide ranges of skills and backgrounds. They have already streamlined the hiring process to accommodate candidates who may need work more urgently than the average jobseeker.
- Hiring foreign workers isn't free of challenges. Among the biggest are language barriers. To speed up the integration of foreign staff into the workforce, employers assess job language requirements and consider helping new joiners improve their language and cultural skills.

- Most jobseeker show an open mindset regarding working with colleagues of other nationalities. Resentment of foreigners is unlikely to be a concern for the majority of employers.
- The human resource policies of foreign employers are changing based on inputs from the hires which is a good new. This means that the employers are ready for a change and open to adopt new policies.

PLEASE NOTE

Payments to Y-Axis :

When you make a payment to a Y-Axis, it is your right to demand a receipt for the same. We issue a receipt for all payments made to the company. An acknowledgement of Payment made to Y-Axis, is also sent from our central software. If you have any questions regarding payments to Y-Axis, please email accounts@y-axis.com

Payments to Y-Axis Staff

You are cautioned against making any additional payments to any Y-Axis employee. If a Y-Axis staff member offers to fabricate your profile or get you any kind of documents for an additional fee, we strongly advise that you inform the management for us to take suitable action against the employee. Please note, the company is not liable if you enter into any verbal or written agreement with a Y-Axis employee or his / her reference. If you have paid for any additional service to any Y-Axis employee, we are not responsible for the consequences of the same. Do not make any such payments to any employee of Y-Axis as the company does not permit it.

Vendors Referred by Y-Axis Staff

We strongly discourage you from availing of any services that may be suggested by any Y-Axis employee as this is not endorsed or permitted by the company & you run the risk of fraud by indulging in the same. We are not responsible for any vendors who may have been referred by a Y-Axis employee and we are not liable for any charges that you have paid to them. We cannot authenticate the service provided by any external vendor & we do not endorse any of these services in any way.

Fraudulent Documentation :

Y-Axis does not deal with cases where fraudulent documentation or information has been submitted. Your case has been accepted by Y-Axis based on the information you have provided - which we assume is true. Y-Axis is not liable and is not responsible if you have provided incorrect / misleading / fraudulent documentation or information.

Y-Axis does not provide clients with any kind of documents and only works on what has been provided by you. We assume that all that has been submitted to us is 100% true and correct.

Y-Axis employees are strictly warned and are required to adhere to the company policy. In the event of any employee going against company policy, Y-Axis is not responsible or liable for the same as our policy is to accept cases where information provided is 100% true.

To avoid being duped – and refused entry into the USA, Canada, the UK and Australia – you should bear in mind the following:

- Do not be misled by any unscrupulous Y-Axis staff into believing that it is acceptable to submit forged documents with your visa application. The application will be refused and you face further investigation by the Indian authorities.
- Do not believe any Y-Axis staff who says that they can, in exchange for money, influence how fast applications are processed or the final decision. They cannot. Visa decisions are made only by visa officers authorized by the respective country.

- Do not be fooled by imposters pretending to be visa officers from Embassies. Legitimate visa officers do not meet applicants outside their offices nor do they contact you to ask for money.
- Do not be fooled by fake websites designed to look like official government or service delivery partner websites. Always get your visa information from official websites.
- Do not be duped by a job or visa scam. Many people are being cheated with job offers overseas that do not exist. Stop and think before you hand over your money, passport and personal details. If the job offer sounds too good to be true, it could be a scam.

Crooked staff often advises applicants to provide fake documentation or enter into marriages of convenience. Don't be fooled. Your investment will be lost, you will be caught, and you will be denied entry to the country you have applied to

The USA, UK, Australia & Canada welcome genuine visitors, students and workers. However, they will not tolerate abuse of the immigration system and have a zero tolerance to fraud. We strongly advise anyone who wants a visa for these countries not to listen to staff who offers to sell forged documents and say that they can guarantee a visa. The Immigration Authorities have very effective processes for detecting fraud and work with international partners and Indian authorities to do so. When they uncover fraud, including false education and language certificates, the visa will be refused and the applicant will face a ten year ban, as well as possible action by the Indian authorities.””

Fraud is a criminal offence in the USA, Australia, Canada and the UK and can lead to severe penalties for those involved. But ultimately the responsibility for a visa application lies with the applicant. Providing fraudulent documents or misleading information can result in severe consequences not just for the staff but also the applicant. Applicants need to protect themselves from immigration fraud by being aware of the ways people may try to take advantage of them and their situation.

Y-Axis Management strongly advises you against indulging in any kind of fraud or misrepresentation of your profile. Please be warned that Submission of fraudulent documentation before a visa issuing authority will result in you being banned from the country for no less than 10 years.

Jobs:

Y-Axis is a licensed recruitment agent in India and works with employers and placement agencies who recruit candidates from Y-Axis for a fee. Y-Axis does not guarantee jobs or charge the candidate for the job. If a Y-Axis employee attempts to do this, please contact us immediately so we can initiate action.

Why should you file your migration petition this month?

Why should you not delay?

Rules may change. Everything has a quota!

Immigration rules are volatile and governments are always debating whether to close the door or whom to close the door on. Don't take the rules for granted. Apply now when you are eligible! You may not be eligible, a few months from now.

You save time

If you postpone your decision, you end up in the same career junction even next year. Take a decision and advance your career right now.

You aren't growing any younger!

Most countries have an age limit and it gets stricter as you grow older. You may not be eligible even a year later. And then as you get older, your ability to adjust to new surroundings also decreases. Apply now – you may also earn extra points for age!

Your kids adjust faster when they are younger

Your kids adjust better and learn faster when younger. Remember, this opportunity is for them too.

Better in every way

If you are not married, it will improve your profile and get you a better partner.
It is never a bad thing to hold a PR visa that allows you to work & live overseas.
It is never a bad thing to hold an additional UK, Australia, Germany or Canadian Passport.

No kids? Even better

If you are married and do not have children yet, your kids born inside the country will become Naturalized Citizens automatically.

You may change your mind

You or your spouse may change your mind later and may miss on something good in your life and for your children.
Treat your migration petition as an investment for the future – yours and your children. Apply for it now, watch it mature later. Avail of the benefits all your life.

So, why should you sign up now, because you need to strike when the iron is hot!

Migrants Perspective

One of the wealthiest and largest countries in the European Union (EU), the abundance of jobs and the thriving economy are what makes working in Germany so appealing

Germany has the largest economy in Europe and the fifth largest in the world. The job market in Germany is generally strong and employment is high for skilled workers coming into the country, specifically in engineering, manufacturing and the IT sectors. Manufacturing is the foundation of the economy of Germany, a highly industrialized and densely populated country.

Immigration

1. There is a shortage of skilled workers in many sectors and professions in Germany. More especially, qualified technical workers, such as engineers and IT specialists, as well as health specialists, are in short supply.
2. Germany Opportunity Card Visa entitles you to stay and search for a job in the country for 1 Year..
3. After getting job, one can apply for Blue Card, from within the country.
4. On an employment resident permit, you have to complete 5 years to apply for permanent residency.
